

Command
filter

Type (inline)

Description

filter is a required command in the LIST body content and is used to define the search query that will be run to gather a set of results from the complete set of objects that have been indexed by the Unified Search.

A large number of possible individual parameters can be 'filtered' . Multiple filter commands can be applied in an additive manner, ie the equivalent of an AND operation.

Required
required

Version

see also

Comments

Invalid trackeritem ID: 298

The original document is available at